

Tsaile/Wheatfields/Blackrock Watershed Planning Meeting Agenda

Goal: to educate and engage participants in building partnerships and identifying cross-collaboration opportunities related to the restoration of rangelands and watersheds between the Tsaile/Wheatfields/Blackrock Community and entities from the Navajo Nation.

Date and Time: Saturday, November 2nd from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Location: Tsaile/Wheatfields Diné Water Users Office (located behind the Chapter House)

Presentations

9:00 AM

Welcome

- Opening Prayer
- Introductions

10:00 AM

Aaron Begay, Benita Litson, Marquel Begay (Tsaile Wheatfields Diné Water User, Diné College Land Grant Office, University of Arizona)

- Overview of Tsaile/Wheatfields/Blackrock Watershed Plan Initiative
- Proposed PhD Study on Rangeland Seed Restoration

10:30 AM

Roberto Nutlouis (Black Mesa Water Coalition, Restorative Economy Coordinator)

- Dził Yíjiin Watershed Restoration Project

11:00 AM

Jesse Mike (Navajo Nation Fish and Wildlife, Forester)

- Diné Native Plants Program: Native Plant Seed Bank and Nursery for Restoration on the Navajo Nation

11:30 AM

Arnold Clifford (Consultant, Diné Botanist)

- Navajo Plants of the Chuska Mountains

12:00 AM

Lunch (Food will be provided!)

Discussion and Planning

1 PM – 3 PM

Discussion and Watershed Plan Outline

- Partnerships
- Projects and Timeline